Ray Moriwaki Gets Most Votes As Two Ties Mark Poll Races

In the Center's first election, with many issei participating for the first time in any democratic election, a total of 5924 votes were cast, according to an unofficial initial tabulation.

With 10,365 eligible to vote, the total balloting was 57 per cent of the number of registered voters.

Ray Moriwaki, Section 10, received the largest number of votes cast for any one candidate with a total of 152. H. Y. Sasaki, Section 29, won with the fewest, a total of 14 votes being enough to carry his section.

The closest race was in Section 48 where Asanuma nosed out Hitoshi Fukui, 58 to 57.

Dance Tonight

"There'll be a dance tonight, honest," promised Ty Saito, director of community activity.

The dance will be held 7 p.m. at the Grandstand.

ART CLASSES

Art classes under the leadership of Bob Kawahara, Adult Activities leader, will start Monday at 9 a.m. in the handicraft room, Barrack 36, Avenue E.

Men's Glee Club

Male singers who wish to join the men's glee club were invited today by Director George Zaima to sign up for a voice test in the Recreation office.

'KNOW US' RALLY

To acquaint the new inductees from Santa Clara valley with the many Center activities, a rally will be held Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Recreation hall.

EVACUATED

This is the last number of the PACEMAKER to be issued from the office in Barrack 36.

The evacuated staff will move today, bag, baggage, and last year's calendar, to the new enlarged quarters in the PACEMAKER building, south of the Blue mess hall.

Two ties were recorded. In Section 37, George Morey and Shig Hashii polled 22 votes each. Kingo Ouchi and Tom Sakamoto tied in Section 15 with 15 each.

WRITE-INS WIN

Nine write-in candidates topped their sections.

According to the Election committee, not only did more issei vote in this election, but more issei won positions as sectional representatives.

Women also showed great interest in the balloting; not only voting heavily but carrying Sections 1, 38, 42, and 45.

CASTS FIRST BALLOT

T. Fujita, who waited from 6:30 a.m. for the polls to open in District 6, was the first to cast his ballot in his district.

Section 29, in which is located the police barracks, the fire station, and maintenance shops, reported that up to 1 p.m., only one vote was cast. A total of 28 votes were cast by closing time.

UNIQUE POLL

The poll in District III was a huge beach umbrella beneath a pepper tree.

A revote will be held in Section 38 due to an error in registration of voters.

In Section 37, Ruthy Hatanaka, registrar, reported, a man tried to cast two ballots for himself.
